ENTRY GUIDELINES

1. A description of the unit is required when filing the application.
2. All units must be decorated and/or have working lights on the float to be considered for entry into the City of Woodlake Christmas Parade.
3. All units must in some way reflect either the theme of the parade (preferred) or the holiday season.
4. Absolutely no Santa costumed characters allowed in the parade. There will only be one Santa and that will be provided by The Home Grown Project.
5. All parade entries must be pre-registered.
6. Units that delay the parade are subject to removal.
7. No political campaign signs will be allowed.
8. Candy may be handed-out.
9. The parade committee reserves the right to limit or determine participation in the parade.
10. Units must maintain no more than 50 feet between each other and must keep moving. For everyone's safety, no units may stop to perform.
11. Units must adhere to their assigned entry number.
12. No units may solicit any donations of cash or goods from spectators.
